

In memory
of FCCANYS
founder,
Maria Otto

As a strong and committed leader from Bronx, New York, Maria was loved & respected, not just for being such a positive role model in the African American community, but because she maintained high standards for all providers, supporting, empowering and challenging them to achieve higher levels of quality in their family child care homes.

Maria Otto was the founder of FCCANYS and a founding board member of the National Association of Family Child Care. She was a true inspiration to us all.

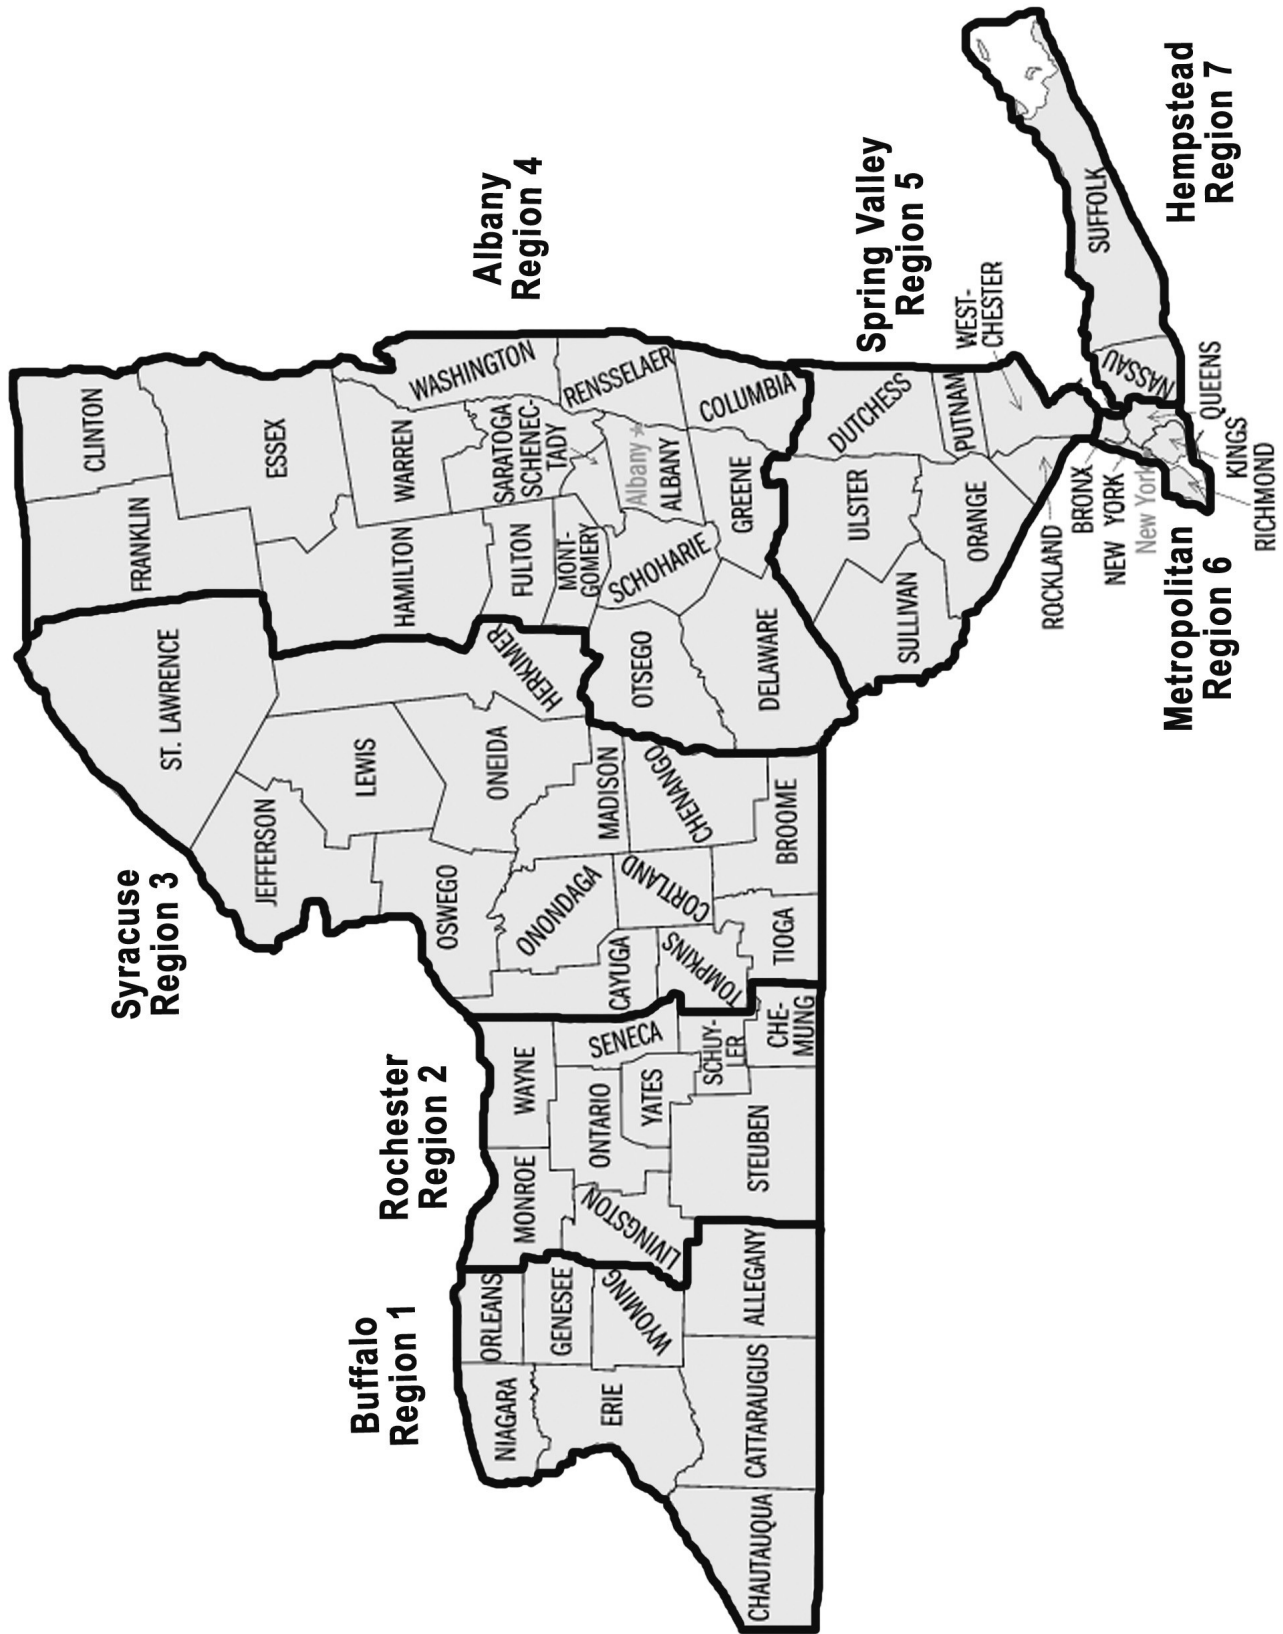

When Maria Otto passed away in 1999 FCCANYS honored her contribution to the organization and the profession of family child care by establishing an award in her name.

Today FCCANYS Board of Directors are privileged to continue this work and are grateful for all that Maria offered.

Strong Voice, Strong Presence, Strong Association!

Welcome

Welcome to the Villa Roma Resort and Conference Center!

On behalf of the FCCANYS Board of Directors, we welcome you to our Annual Conference. Every year we come together to celebrate early childhood education in all its facets, by learning new developments and theories by sharing our experiences and knowledge by networking with providers from the state of New York, we are contributing positively to building new paths in our career.

We are early childhood professionals because we directly work with young children from infancy to age 8 and above. We are teachers, day care providers, most of the time social workers, parent coordinators, consultants and program administrators among many other titles that we are entitled to, we build our children's character, self-esteem, social-emotional skills, we have the opportunity to share beautiful experiences that last a life time.

We earned the right to be proud of our contribution to this profession. And because of the roles that we play in the lives of our children, we have a great responsibility to make all those experiences count.

It is with great pride that every member of the association works arduously for several months of the year to make this event special, we want you to have a positive experience, one of much fun and success achieving your goals.

Please enjoy with us the 27th Annual Conference.

Warm regards,

Claudia Cala

General Information

Name Badges

Wear your conference name badges all day, every day! You will not be allowed into workshops or meals without your name badge.

Meals

You have received meal tickets in your conference registration packet. These tickets will allow you admittance into the dining room. The Conference Package you registered for determines which meals are included with your conference registration. Place all meal tickets in the plastic holder behind your name badge for easy access. Surrender the corresponding meal ticket (for each meal) upon entering the dining room. There will be NO admittance without a meal ticket.

Child Care Training Credit for Providers

This conference is offering 15 hours of family child care training that qualify towards the required 30 hours OCFS training every two years. Stickers will be given at the end of each session to document attendance. Please retain your certificate & conference program in your professional portfolio to document/verify the training you attended at this conference. Lost or misplaced certificates will not be replaced by FCCANYS.

Certificate of Attendance Information

Your Certificate of Attendance for your professional portfolio is printed on the last page of your conference program. Please write your name on your certificate before your first workshop. At the end of each workshop please present your Certificate of Attendance to the FCCANYS Board Member/Hostess as you leave and the appropriate sticker will be attached for that workshop session. You must be present for the ENTIRE workshop to receive a sticker.

Workshops will be closed fifteen (15) minutes after the start time of the session. When a workshop has reached maximum capacity of participants the door to the room will be closed. Please respect a closed door—Do not enter!

EIP & QUALITYstarsNY Recipients—Please Note:

EIP & QUALITYstarsNY require documentation of successful course completion for their recipients. Your Conference Certificate of Participation will provide the necessary documentation for verification of attendance at sessions from the stickers attached to your certificate.

Workshop Sign in Sheets

All participants must sign the workshop attendance sheet at each session attended.

Ask me!

FCCANYS Board Members will be available throughout the conference to help you locate rooms, answer questions, and help you enjoy the Villa Roma Resort.

Changes or Additions

Any changes or additions to workshops will be posted at the Registration area.

QUALITYstarsNY Standards Alignment

FCCANYS worked with QUALITYstarsNY to designate which workshops offered at this year's conference are aligned with the QUALITYstarsNY Standards for Family Child Care Providers. The aligned workshops could assist you (and your staff) in meeting Relevant QSNY Topic Areas & Standards. The QUALITYstarsNY aligned workshops are denoted by QSNY on the charts on pages 8 & 9 and with the workshops descriptions.

Multilingual Translation Service

We are offering two multilingual workshops each session. Workshops will be simultaneously translated into Spanish. The translators & Spanish speaking providers will utilize headsets for this service. The workshops that will be simultaneously translated into Spanish are denoted with the symbol ► on pages 8 & 9. See workshop listing/descriptions in Spanish on pages 19, 20 & 21.

Exhibit Information

The Exhibit area is more than a simple marketplace. It is an atmosphere for interaction, surprises, and fun! We have kept in mind the varied needs of providers and agencies, by mixing a few nontraditional booths in among conference regulars. With so many old favorites and new possibilities, there will be something for everyone. Spend some time interacting with the Exhibitors and other participants. What a great place to network, enjoy others expertise, and truly appreciate the spirit of the conference.

Exhibits will be open Friday 8:30 AM - 4:00 PM & Saturday 8:00 AM - 4:00 PM.

The hours will allow plenty of opportunities to explore and shop.

Conference participation by an exhibitor does not constitute an endorsement of products or services by FCCANYS. As with everything, we may have different ideas about what is appropriate to sell or display at a conference of this type. Please share any concerns & applause directly with the exhibitors.

Conference Evaluations

Suggestions from participants have always played a critical part in improving the conference each year. Please share your thoughts on the evaluation form. Leave your Evaluation Form in the box near the registration table before the end of the conference.

Children

Child care is not provided at the conference. While our careers and this conference are devoted to providing and promoting quality child care, workshops are not an appropriate setting for children. Children ARE NOT permitted in workshops, keynote sessions, or meals. Please respect this decision and make alternative arrangements for your children.

Sensitivities

Because of the nature of a conference, we ask that you be considerate of those who have asthma, allergies and and/or are extremely sensitive to scents. We ask that you minimize your use of perfumes and other fragrant beauty products.

Cell Phones

We require that all cell phone ringers are turned off (use vibrate mode only) during ALL workshops and keynotes.

Smoking is restricted to designated smoking areas only.

Lisa Shulman, MD

*Developmental Pediatrician,
CDC ACT Early Ambassador for NYS
Montefiore Medical Center*

The early identification of Autism Spectrum Disorders and other developmental disabilities has become a national priority. Highest rates of identification are achieved by casting a wide net and involving all those who spend time with young children in monitoring their development. This “village” includes: parents, child care providers, healthcare settings, houses of worship, libraries, etc. The CDC’s Act Early initiative has developed a mission, materials, and strategies for developmental monitoring designed especially for Early Childhood Settings which, as New York’s CDC Act Early Ambassador, I would like to share with you.

RESILIENCE: The Biology of Stress & the Science of Hope

Tamaé Memole, Director of Program Development
Prevent Child Abuse New York

Brittany Enekes, Program Coordinator Prevent Child Abuse New York

RESILIENCE is a documentary that delves into the science of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) and the birth of a new movement to treat and prevent Toxic Stress. Now understood to be one of the leading causes of everything from heart disease and cancer to substance abuse and depression, extremely stressful experiences in childhood can alter brain development and have lifelong effects on health and behavior. However, as experts and practitioners profiled in RESILIENCE are proving, what's predictable is preventable. These physicians, educators, social workers and communities are daring to talk about the effects of divorce, abuse and neglect. And they're using cutting edge science to help the next generation break the cycles of adversity and disease. The film will be followed by a facilitated discussion.

Strengthening the Protective Factors of Children in Early Childhood Education Settings

Tamaé Memole, Director of Program Development Prevent Child Abuse New York
Brittany Enekes, Program Coordinator Prevent Child Abuse New York

The Five Protective Factors are the foundation of the Strengthening Families Approach: parental resilience, social connections, concrete support in times of need, knowledge of parenting and child development, and social and emotional competence of children. Research studies support the common-sense notion that when these Protective Factors are well established in a family, the likelihood of child abuse and neglect diminishes. Research shows that these protective factors are also “promotive” factors that build family strengths and a family environment that promotes optimal child and youth development. This workshop will explore ways home-based child care providers can work to strengthen the protective factors of the families of the children in their care.

OCFS Training Topics: 4, 6, 9 EAST 2

Food for Thought: The Influence of Nutrition on Behavior

Jeanine Fitzgerald, Fitzgerald Institute of Life Long Learning

This generation of children has the highest rate of food allergies, obesity, emotional and behavioral diagnoses, autoimmune disease and learning challenges ever recorded. And while we prefer to look for the quick fix, there are hidden connections between nutrition and these challenges. If our current approaches considered nutrition as having preventive and healing properties, we would waste less money on evaluations, lab tests and medications that do not solve the challenges, but mask or treat the symptoms. This session examines ways that nutrition impacts a child's energy, learning and susceptibility to the diagnoses of ADHD, Oppositional Defiant Disorder and others. It offers scientifically-proven approaches that have led to real-life solutions.

conexiones sociales, apoyo concreto en tiempos de necesidad, conocimiento de la crianza de los hijos y el desarrollo infantil, y la competencia social y emocional de los niños. Los estudios de re-búsqueda apoyan la noción de sentido común de que cuando estos factores protectores están bien establecidos en una familia, la probabilidad de abuso y negligencia infantil disminuye. La investigación muestra que estos factores de protección también son factores "promotores" que construyen fortalezas familiares y un ambiente familiar que promueve el desarrollo óptimo de niños y jóvenes. Este taller explorará maneras en que los proveedores de cuidado infantil familiar pueden trabajar para fortalecer los factores de protección de las familias de los niños bajo su cuidado.

Alimento para el pensamiento: La influencia de la nutrición en el comportamiento

Jeanine Fitzgerald, Fundadora del Instituto de la vida de largo aprendizaje

Esta generación de niños tiene el porcentaje más alto de alergias alimenticias, obesidad, diagnósticos emocionales y de comportamiento, enfermedades autoinmunes y desafíos de aprendizaje registrados en la historia. Y si bien preferimos buscar la solución rápida, existen conexiones ocultas entre la nutrición y estos desafíos. Si nuestros enfoques actuales consideraran que la nutrición tiene propiedades preventivas y curativas, perderíamos menos dinero en evaluaciones, análisis de laboratorio y medicamentos que no resuelven los desafíos, sino que ocultan el tratamiento de los síntomas. Esta sesión examina las formas en que la nutrición afecta la energía, el aprendizaje y la susceptibilidad de un niño a los diagnósticos de TDAH, trastorno de oposición desafiante y otros. Ofrece enfoques probados científicamente que ofrecen soluciones reales.

To Conference Attendees:

Our conference is really special, because you are here sharing your time with us!

We can say that it is a well-organized event with practical professional development in mind, concepts that can be tested in our child care centers on the daily bases. Theories that become practice because we know that these theories work in real life, we know that professionals are using these concepts and methods and they are willing to share their experiences with us for our children's advantage. All for your benefit.

I am proud to be part of the Family Child Care Association of NYS, a non-profit organization run by volunteers that truly believe in early childhood education and practice this commitment in many different capacities.

According to our by-laws it was election time for a three year term president position and I am proud to welcome Joan Hallett-Valentine as our new president elect. Joan is a dedicated child care provider with many years of experience; she is an active board member with all the knowledge necessary to lead the association in a professional and positive direction. It was an honor to serve this board as president these past three years; I have only appreciation for the board's support and willingness to share their expertise for the benefit of all our members.

Thank you for coming to our conference, for being a part of a very special group of people that come together every year to learn and to share two days of excellent learning opportunities and network environment, YOU ARE A SPECIAL PART OF OUR Association.

Hope to see you next year!
